

HAWAII

Destination Fact Sheet

If you're looking for a destination with natural beauty, adventure, and relaxation, Hawaii is your next vacation spot. With its pristine beaches, lush tropical forests, active volcanoes, luxurious spas, and rich cultural heritage, Hawaii offers an unparalleled vacation that will leave you feeling refreshed and rejuvenated.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

No passport or visa required for U.S. citizens.

Capital	Honolulu	Time Zone	Aleutian (GMT-10)	Currency	U.S. Dolar (USD)
Population	1.45 million	Climate	Tropical	Electricity	120 volts

Getting There

The major airports is the Daniel K. Inouye International Airport, formerly known as Honolulu International Airport (HNL).

Typical Flying Times to Honolulu

- From Houston: 9 hours
- From Los Angeles: 5 hours 45 mins
- From Miami: 14 hours 30 mins
- From New York City: 11 hours

Languages

Hawaiian and English

Country Dial Code

+1 808

Driving

You will drive on the right side. A U.S. drivers license is accepted.

Health

No requirements.

Tipping

Same as mainland: 15% average. 20% for outstanding service.

Top Attractions

- Hawaii Volcanoes National Park
- Kualoa Ranch
- Mauna Kea
- Mount Haleakala
- Na Pali Coast
- Pearl Harbor Memorial
- Road to Hana
- Waikiki Beach
- Waimea Canyon

Fun Facts

- Mauna Kea is the tallest peak in the world
- Iolani Palace is the only official royal residence in the U.S.
- Hawaii's state "gem" is black coral
- You can mail someone a coconut...unwrapped!